

To Tiffany & Tivy

Whenever two hearts find love that's full and true.

*Whenever two souls pledge to share one pathway all life through. The world around them cannot help but to change
and transform too.*

For love is the force that magically creates and makes things new.

*May the promise you two make today,
change your world in a wonderful way.*

Love always, Keshia

This has been a long and hard road, but by God's Grace this was meant to be.
